LEMON TRUST EXISTS IS CHARGED IN LAW SUIT.

Charges that a lemon trust exists in New York and has maintained a lobby in Washington to reduce the tariff on lemons are made in a suit filed in New York recently by William S. Armstrong, receiver for the Mercantile-Regan Company, importers of fruits.

Armstrong seeks to recover damages from the Sicula-American Steamship Company, which he says entered into an agreement in 1911 with the Fruit Importers' Union and other importers of lemons to add 2 pence, English money, to the regular freight rates on every box of lemons brought here by the line. The Mercantile-Regan Company, which failed in 1912, was not a member of the union or a party to the agreement. Armstrong relates, but was compelled to use the steamers of the Sicula-American Company and pay the extra rate.

The plaintiff alleges that this extra tax was to be used to lobby for a reduction of the tariff on Italian lemons in opposition to the efforts of the California lemon growers, who wanted the tariff retained.

IMPERIAL ENTERS TOBACCO MARKET AT HOPKINSVILLE

J. T. Thomas, manager for the Imperial Tobacco Company, at Hopkinsville, has received instructions to re-enter the tobacco market, and the big plant there will be operated this season and the usual purchases put up.

Since the adverse verdict rendered against the Imperial at Morganfield they had withheld from the market all over the State.

The plant at Hopkinsville has been recently overhauled, and is ready to start up any day, and it will just as soon as sufficient stock can be gotten together.

Until a few days ago not a pound of tobacco had been bought by the company, but in addition to buying on the loose floors buyers will be put into the country this week, and they will go after the tobacco.

This means that the Imperial will put up from 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 pounds.

HIS STOMACH TROUBLES OVER

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Baker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says: "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets; then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers. (adv)

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION CURED

"Five years ago I had the worst case of chronic constipation I ever knew of, and Chamberlain's Tablets cured me," writes W. S. Fish, Brooklyn, Mich. For sale by all dealers. (Jan)

HINDMAN, KY., TO RAISE FROM THE ASHES.

Advices from Hindman, Knott county, say that plans are completed for the immediate beginning of construction of the burned district of the county seat of Knox county. Modern and thoroughly up-to-the-times business buildings will rise up phoenix-like in the wake of the disastrous conflagration. The Hindman Bank will erect a $20,000 home, while Francis Day & Co. will erect a splendid store building to cost in the aggregate of $25,000.

CHICAGO POLICE WOMAN PROVES HER WORTH

Mrs. Mary Boyd, one of Chicago's ten policewomen, is not a large woman, but she is muscular. Friday she boarded a street car while a powerful bully built man and the conductor were engaged in a fight over a transfer. Mrs. Boyd showed her star and separated the two men, telling the passenger he was under arrest. When he resisted the officer she pulled him off the car, stood him against a post and rang for the patrol wagon.

CIRCUIT JUDGES OF STATE WILL CONVENE TODAY

Circuit judges from all over the State will meet in Louisville today for the annual meeting of the association of Circuit Judges of Kentucky, which is to be held at the Hotel Henry Watson, Judge William H. Field, of Louisville, will speak on "Actions By Fraud," and Judge Chas. Marshall of Shelbyville, will also address the members.

Arrangements for the meeting, which will include a luncheon at the hotel, are being made by the Judges of the Jefferson County Court, Judges James P. Gregory, James Quarles, Samuel B. Kirby, William H. Field, Thomas R. Gordon, Walter P. Lincoln and W. M. Smith.

A PUZZLE.

We borrow from the New York Press the following instructive history of a head of cabbage:

"This head of cabbage is grown by a small farmer in Connecticut, who gets a cent and a half for it. It first goes to the commission merchant, who lives on Riverside Drive, pays $2,000 a year for his apartment, keeps an automobile and spends $2,000 a year. Next the cabbage is sent to the wholesaler, who lives on West End Avenue, in an $1,800 apartment, keeps an automobile and who spends $6,000 a year. Thence the cabbage goes to the jobber, who lives in a $1,500 apartment on upper Broadway, keeps an automobile and spends $5,000 a year. From him the cabbage travels to the retailer, who lives in a $700 apartment on a side street, has a corner store for which he pays $25 a month rent, keeps two delivery wagons at a cost of $140 per month, and spends $2,500 on his living. Finally the cabbage gets to Mr. Ultimate Consumer, who lives in a $40-a-month tenement, rides in the trolley car or subway, spends all he can make or a little more to live, and pays for that head of cabbage thirteen cents."

Puzzle—Find the cabbage head.

BUMPER YEAR IN AMERICA DESPITE EXTREME DROUGHTS

Ten billion dollars' worth of products, $5,000,000,000 of cash income—a bumper year in spite of droughts and other setbacks—is the 1913 record of 6,000,000 American farms.

The most successful year of husbandry in the United States brought forth $6,100,000,000 worth of crops, of which $2,896,000,000 were represented by cereals alone, and $3,650,000,000 worth of animals sold and slaughtered and animal products. The value of the 1913 crops is twice as great as that of 1899; more than a $1,000,000,000 over 1909; and substantially greater in 1912. Of all the crops, however, it is estimated that 52 per cent will remain on farms where they were produced and that 20 per cent of the animal production will remain. On that basis the cash income is estimated by the Department of Agriculture at $5,847,000,000.

But despite a record year of crop value—although the record of production has fallen—and the fact that the number of farms has increased 11 per cent since 1910, until there are now estimated to be 6,000,000 farms in the country, the department, in a discussion of the subject recently made public, does not take the view that a lower cost of living will follow as a consequence.

SALE OF MR. GREEN LEER TUESDAY IS WELL ATTENDED

Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes, of this city, Tuesday conducted the sale of stock, crop and farming implements of Mr. Green Leer on his farm known as the Socrates Bowles farm, about four and one-half miles from Paris, on the Jacktown pike. A part of the farm was recently sold by Mr. Leer to Mr. John Lair, at $160 per acre. The sale was well attended and everything brought good prices, as follows:

Sheep, $6.50 to $7.75 per head; cattle shoats, $3 to $7.10 each; sows, $15 to $25; milch cows, $75 to $95; yearling cattle, $51 per head; one suckling calf, $58; feeders, weighing 400 lbs., $72.80 per head; four coming yearling mules, $124.75 each; four yearling mules, $77.50 each; one pair five-year-old mules, $402.50; one pair gray mares, $425; corn in the crib, $5.90 to $4.20 per barrel; corn in the shock, $1.90 per shock; fodder, 35 cents per shock. The bidding was spirited throughout.

ED TIPTON TO MANAGE C. K. G. BILLINGS' INTERESTS

Edward A. Tipton, president and general manager of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, and formerly of Paris, who is interested with C. K. G. Billings, the New York millionaire trotting horse magnate, in further developing the trotting industry, has been engaged by Mr. Billings to manage the horse department of the Cur's Neck Farm, near Richmond, Va., which was recently acquired by Mr. Billings. Mr. Tipton, it is announced, expects to divide his time between Lexington and New York. He succeeds Charles Tanner, who for years has directed the horse interests of Billings, but who recently resigned.
